

"Bravery"

"Bravery" = Everyone serving time in a prison or jail, no matter the level, displays a sense of bravery. Waking up to live another day in a place that we all wish we could rip ourselves away from says something about drive, determination, and guts that one would not understand unless they had to do it. GOD BLESS ALL who keep fighting. Your day will soon come.

FOR READING!

Below is a question to reflect on from this piece. Feel free to also use it as a conversation starter with a fellow reader, or even a loved one on the outside!

When Rodney writes, "God bless all who keep fighting," he's using the idea of fighting in a distinctive way.

What kinds of things do incarcerated people have to "fight" against in order to stay positive, hopeful, and brave?

We'd love to hear what you thought of the piece, or if you've had any meaningful conversations as a result. Or perhaps you'd like to share an expression of your own (visual art or creative writing). You are always welcome to write to us at Shining Light at P.O. Box 267, Annville, PA 17003.

**Note: We will not be able to provide a response to your letter or receipt of your submission, but know that we value your feedback and contributions and will take them seriously.*
