

"Two People"

Two hands work together in unity trying to build something new.

Two arms outstretched, reaching out for something.
They find two more reaching toward them.

Two people who need one another.
They build a bond that can't be broken.

Two minds work together tirelessly,
trying to figure out everything they don't know.

Four eyes search endlessly.
They finally see each other.

Two people find one another.
They learn to rely on each other.

Two people work together in unity,
trying to make it in this world.

Two people use TEAMWORK, because they know they can't do it ALONE.

Thank You FOR READING!

Below are some questions to reflect on from this piece. Feel free to also use one as a conversation starter with a fellow reader, or even a loved one on the outside!

Do you have someone you consider your teamwork "partner," whether on the inside or outside?

What makes your relationship with this person feel like teamwork?
How are you "better together" within this partnership?

We'd love to hear what you thought of the piece, or if you've had any meaningful conversations as a result. Or perhaps you'd like to share an expression of your own (visual art or creative writing). You are always welcome to write to us at Shining Light at P.O. Box 267, Annville, PA 17003.
